Diwali is the festival of lights – beginning of something new. Here are some of the Tips that everyone should follow:

1. Cleaning of the house is very important. In old days, after cleaning we use to wash whole house (water, drops of Ganga Jal - Rose water and Cow Mutra) but may not be feasible in today's time due to scarcity of Water.
2. Remove unused items – donate items that can be reusable to Ashram, Hospitals, Orphanage.
3. Donate Sweets (especially White) to Orphanage house, old people house, poor families.
4. While placing the diyas never forget to lighten every dark corner. Places such as bathroom, kitchen, staircase and other dark corners of your home should be lightened to attract positive energies.
5. Swastika and Rangoli on the main door of the house. Swastika should be on both side and should not be on walk path.
6. Make your domestic relationships even more beautiful on the occasion of Diwali , place white quartz or white Crystal Balls in the south-west. Keep this in mind that he must be cleaned. If there is talk of someone's relationship in the family, then it will be effective.
